Tudeh Party instructions for the week of 3 - 10 April 1953, with the comment of the cell responsible, were as follows:

1. The Peace Council is to be held in Vienna on 10 April. Comrades are to have their friends, acquaintances, or relatives, who are socially prominent send congratulatory cables to the Council, with a copy to the National Peace Council on Aziz Khan crossroad.
2. A group of our comrades, who were arrested last year on charges of holding communist beliefs, will be tried. Comrades who have time are to attend the trial or, if the courtroom is full, to congregate outside.
3. As the comrades know, each Party organ or committee has its own library, and books are freely available to comrades. Because our comrades of the Kurdish and Azerbaijan Democrat Parties need books, comrades are requested to return those which they have already read.
4. A translation of Comrade Lenin's book Two Tactics will be published shortly. Comrades wishing to buy a copy must advise accordingly.
5. A peasant publication will be distributed this week which defines the duties of the comrades with respect to peasant activities and discusses the proper method of work. It is to be read aloud at all cell meetings, and the Party recommends that it also be read privately by all members.
6. Beginning this week, comrades travelling to rural areas in connection with peasant demonstrations are to invite the peasants to Tehran to attend the May Day demonstration.
